Kuraray at KOREA PACK 2026

Sub headline:

The Poval Resin Division and EVAL Division of Kuraray will participate as exhibitors at KOREA PACK, taking place March 31– April 3 2026 at KINTEX, Seoul, Korea.

Text:

KOREA PACK 2026 gathers packaging experts from across the entire value chain to explore materials and solutions shaping the future of the packaging industry.

At the exhibition, the Poval Resin Division will present its polyvinyl alcohol portfolio, including KURARAY POVAL™ and EXCEVAL™. These materials are known for their excellent film-forming properties, water solubility, and broad application versatility in packaging solutions.

Beyond packaging, KURARAY POVAL™ is also applied in cosmetics as well as in agricultural formulations such as seed coating, where its material characteristics support product functionality and efficient processing.

Stop by our booth to speak with our Kuraray's experts and learn how our materials can enhance your next project.
